

Prevention, Intervention & Inclusion:
Harmful Sexual Behaviour and young people with additional support needs

Wednesday, April 3, 2019

- 9am Coffee and registration
- 9:30am Welcome (Fiona Dyer, Interim Director, CYCJ)
- 9:40am "I would have known why it was wrong and why not to do it" (McKibbin, et al, 2017): A few insights from lived experience (Steve Robertson, SOLD User Group and Tony Bowman, Policy & Development Worker, The SOLD Network)
- 10am Young People with Additional Support Needs and Harmful Sexual Behaviour: What Does Evidence Tell Us About Best Practice? (Stuart Allardyce, National Manager, Stop It Now!)
- 10:40am Puberty as a life transition: Understanding and supporting young people with additional support needs (Beth Hannah, Senior Lecturer in Educational Psychology, University of Dundee)
- 11am Coffee
- 11:20am Sexual Offending Behaviour in Young People with Intellectual Disabilities and Autism Spectrum Disorder (Dr Clare Allely, Reader in Forensic Psychology, University of Salford)
- 11:45am Workshops
- 12:45pm Lunch
- 1:30pm Expert Group on Preventing Harmful Sexual Behaviour between Children and Young People: Submission from the Intellectual Disability Subgroup (Dr Jana de Villiers, Consultant Psychiatrist - Intellectual Disability and Forensic Network Clinical Lead for Intellectual Disabilities, The State Hospital, Carstairs)
- 2pm Workshops
- 3pm Brief showcase of accessible Relationships, Sexual Health and Parenthood (RSHP) education resources in development (Dr Colin Morrison, Partner, TASC (Scotland))
- 3:05pm Question and Answer session
- 3:35pm Closing remarks

#PIevent

CYCJ is primarily funded by the Scottish Government and hosted by the University of Strathclyde.