

Serious Organised Crime & Child Criminal Exploitation Conference
The Renfield Centre, 260 Bath Street, Glasgow

9am	Registration
9.30am	Welcome from Chair and housekeeping: David Harvie, Crown Agent, COPFS
9.45am	Keynote address: Maree Todd, Minister for Children and Young People
10am	Paul Carberry, Director, Action for Children
10.25am	David Duncan, Chief Superintendent, Police Scotland Safer Communities Division
10.45am	Coffee break
11am	Dr Catherine Naughton, University of Limerick: "The Greentown Project: Lifting the lid on child participation in local criminal networks."
11.30am	First workshop session (participants will attend workshops in the morning and afternoon): A: Steve Harte (Edinburgh City Council): "#StrongerNorth Initiative" B: Hamish Mclean (Police Scotland) and Donna McEwan (CYCJ): 'Understanding the relationship between brain development and offending behaviour' C: Sharon Mclver (Action for Children): 'Young people on the cusp of serious and organised crime' D: The Home Office: 'Introduction to the Trusted Relationships Fund' E: Dr Sean Redmond, University of Limerick: 'Wicked Problems, Complex Harms and the niche for deliberative design'
12.15pm	Lunch
1pm	Second workshop session - as above
1.45pm	Scottish Government Human Trafficking Unit: 'Human Trafficking and Exploitation'
2.15pm	Coffee break
2.30pm	Lightning Talks: Hamish McLean (Polmont Project), Sharon Mclver (Action for Children), Emma Simpson-Faichney (Scottish Government Missing Persons)
3pm	Table discussions – What you need to happen next?
3.30pm	Close #CCEevent