

Risk Formulation Forum – will you join us?

Risk Formulation Forum (n)

: an informal safe reflective space where peers can share ideas or views in relation to cases where risk formulation and reduction are complex.

The Risk Formulation Forum was developed to support practitioners using risk assessment tools as part of core business. It is based at the Children and Young People's Centre for Justice (CYCJ).

If you are working with children and young people to formulate, manage and reduce the risk presented and would like to find out more or attend this Forum, please e-mail cycj@strath.ac.uk.

The dates and times for the Risk Formulation Forum for 2023 are:

Wednesday, February 22: 10am – 12pm

Monday, May 15: 1pm to 3pm

Wednesday, August 23: 10am to 12pm

Monday, November 13: 1pm to 3pm

At this stage all meetings will take place on Microsoft Teams. Please email cycj@strath.ac.uk or call 0141 444 8622 if you would like to discuss this further.
